Reward.

RAN AWAY, from the subscriber's plantation, in Prince George's co, about the 1st of June, a negro man, named about 35 years of age, six feet high, and very stout, very black, and a remarkably large mouth; wears his beard long; had on an Osnaburg shirt and trowsers, and new felt hat. I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow in any jail, so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

HERCULES,

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named JAMES, about 22 years of age, his foreteeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat, he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there. I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

J. H. WASHINGTON.

Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against harboring or carrying off said fellow.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

Please to apply at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown.

From the Winchester Herald.

AN ADDRESS TO THE CITIZENS OF WINCHESTER

[Supposed to be written by one of the Theatrical Company.]

Hail Winchester!—with mingled hope and fear—
Our little Thespian Band have quarter'd here:
Guard yourselves well—for ne'er will we depart
'Till we have taken captive every heart.
Already have we 'STOOPED TO CONQUER' in the cause;
And happy 'REAPERS' been in your applause.*
Next from the Grampian Hills, with glory fir'd, [pir'd;
Our young Recruit† to win your hearts as-
And our 'POOR SOLDIER,' just from honor's school, Fool.‡
Received your plaudits for his 'Wealthy
Though small our numbers, we are resolute,
And some of us are persons of repute.
Behold how Hutton's genius, never tame,
Unites Poetic with Theatric fame—
Who in his private hours employs his pen
To praise our WASHINGTON, noblest of men,
See Judah's various talents are engaged
To play the warrior-part—and now the aged;
And Russell (his own character thrown by)
Assumes the clown—uncouth and slovenly.
Behold how Price, with elegance and spirit,
Shows in his Gentleman his private merit;
Carr's comic, and Still's vocal powers you'll own [plaudits down.
Have rais'd your smiles, and brought your
Nor are our Female volunteers remiss;
Replete with talents, beauty and address—
Mrs. Still's sweet strains, with Mrs. Russell's ease,
And Mrs Price endeavoring to please;
Mrs. Hutton—though timid to extent—
In Nelly, added to your merriment. [won,
In these combin'd, your hearts not yet have
Our noble Leader will be here anon—
And then our triumph is complete; for he,
Where'er he goes, must claim the victory.
His lofty genius—polish'd by the aid
Of education—his industry—has made
Him lov'd by all;—but Mr. Caldwell's fame
Needs no eulogium added to his name:
His visit here, we know you will receive
With all the welcome hands and hearts can give.
Our little company will prove meanwhile,
How much they value your approving smile.
May every good your earthly ills assuage:
We ALL are Actors on life's common stage;
And if we well perform the parts we're given, [HEAVEN.
Our great reward will be—THE APPLAUSE OF E.

* The first night's performance was "She Stoops to Conquer," and "Rosina, or the Reapers."

† The young gentleman, only 12 years of age, who played Young Norval.

‡ Mr. Jones, in the character of Patrick, had his song of the "Wealthy Fool" unanimously encored, and called for after the conclusion of the farce.

APHORISMS.

Honesty is a person's best robe; our choicest apparel; many people, as if fearful of wearing it out, lay it carefully by like their Sunday coat.

The silence of a dishonorable person is always desirable, but you are more safe in his hatred than friendship.

Popularity is like the rain-bow, it flies the pursuer and pursues the flier.

FRUGALITY

Is a simplicity of life and manners that teaches us to be content with little; and what renders it still more precious, it is a shelter from corruption. The Roman history offers us many examples of this virtue in Fabricus, Curio and Camillus. The first rejected the magnificent bribes which were proffered to him by Pyrrhus; the second despised all those immense sums which were presented to him by the Samnites; and the third consecrated in the temple of Jupiter all the gold which he obtained from the Gauls.

A similar virtue dictated the answer which a gentleman, distinguished for his merit, made to Sir Robert Walpole, when he wished to gain him to his party.

The minister called to the gentleman, and told him he came from the king, to assure him of his protection, and his majesty was very sorry he had suffered so much time to elapse, without having rewarded him for his very great merit.

"Sir, (said the gentleman) before I reply to your offers, permit me to place my supper before you;" at the same moment he ordered if to be brought; it consisted of the remains of a leg of mutton hashed. Then turning towards the minister, he said, "Do you suppose, sir, that the man who can be content with such a meal, is to be easily gained by the court? Tell the king what you have seen; it is the only answer I have to make to him."

ALEXANDRIA:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6.

Washington, October 4.

The PRESIDENT has returned to his farm, after a week's visit to the City.

Oatlands, the President's farm and present residence, is in Loudon county, Virginia, distant about thirty miles. It is but a morning's ride over to the city; which the President may perform at a moment's notice, should public business require his presence. Meanwhile there is a daily regular communication between the place of his residence and the city; so that he is continually informed of what is important to the public concerns, and the operations of the government cannot be in any case materially delayed or otherwise affected by his sojournment in the country. His visits to the seat of government are generally made on occasions which call for consultations with the Heads of Departments, or with other officers of the government, and are therefore of no long duration. It is only during the Sessions of Congress that the residence of the President at the seat of government is absolutely indispensable, when his country seat is so near at hand. [Nat. Int.

From the National Messenger, October 4.

At a meeting of a number of citizens of Georgetown, in pursuance of the request of the Mayor, to consider the distressed situation of persons of Baltimore, driven from their homes by the malignant fever, and to adopt measures best calculated to afford some pecuniary relief.

At 5 o'clock the Mayor took the chair, and Daniel Kurtz was appointed Secretary.

The following Resolutions being submitted, were considered, and unanimously adopted, viz.

Resolved, That a subscription paper be now opened, for the signatures of such present disposed to contribute.

Resolved, That John Abbot, Wm. King, Jun. and Samuel M'Kenny, be a committee for the first ward.

John Peter and F. S. Key, for the second ward.

Thomas Corcoran, Washington Bowie, James Dunlop, Jun. and Thomas L. M'Kenny, for the third ward.

And John Threlkeld, Clement Smith, Jno. Cox, Charles King, and Daniel Bussard, for the fourth ward;

Whose duty it shall be, to call on Monday or Tuesday next, for the several sums now subscribed; and receive any donations from persons in their respective wards, disposed to afford relief to their suffering fellow citizens of Baltimore.

Resolved, That the Ministers of the several congregations of Georgetown, be requested to announce to the people of their respective churches, on Sunday next, the proceedings of this meeting, and that they be respectfully requested to aid the committees in their wards.

Resolved, That the Mayor forward to the Authorities of Baltimore, the amount which may be collected.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing proceedings be published in the National Messenger. D. KURTZ, Sec'ry.

Counterfeit Notes of the following description are in circulation in the Western Country: Patriotic Bank, ten dollar notes; Union Bank of Georgetown, five dollar notes.

In a late debate in the British House of Commons, it was stated without contradiction, that, since 1817, the benefit of the insolvent laws had been taken to the amount of fifteen million pounds sterling, the dividends on which were not one farthing in the pound.

It is now contemplated to open a canal between New-York and Philadelphia, by way of the Raritan and Delaware rivers. We have long wondered why this enterprize, as well as that of a canal from Barnstable to Buzzard's Bay; and another from the Delaware to the Chesapeake Bay, heve not been opened. A moment's reflection, it has appeared to us, would not only point out their practicability; but, beyond the public good, the immense profits that would accrue to such individuals as should embark their property in the undertaking Patriotism, as well as private interest, would seem to stimulate the accomplishment of these important objects. [Boston Gazette.

A YANKEE TRICK.

Several of the papers have lately published an article, stating that essence of spruce was an effectual remedy for the yellow fever. A gentleman of the faculty denies that it possesses any such qualities; and says that the person that first promulgated the virtues of spruce, was a captain Smith, master of an American vessel, who being at St. Domingo, when the yellow fever raged, announced its peculiar efficacy in that disorder. The consequence was, besides a considerable reputation for inspired knowledge, and being the founder of a new sect of physicians, he enjoyed the satisfaction of selling a cargo of "essence of spruce," which his new pupils purchased at his own price. [Newburyport Herald.

By the arrival of the Fanny, captain Storeman, from Cadiz, whence she sailed on the 28th of August, we learn that the Treaty was not at that time ratified. The previous information of the desolation at Gibraltar by the yellow fever is confirmed. The inhabitants had mostly left the rock. Prices of American produce at that port, not worth quoting. [Philadelphia Union.

REMARKABLE DEATH.

On Saturday evening last, a young man at Burlington, New-Jersey, ate a piece of honey-comb, in which a bee was concealed. While in the act of swallowing it, the bee stung him in the throat, which swelled, so as to occasion, within half an hour, his death by suffocation.

Salem, September 28.

Yesterday was taken from the bottom of the ship Osprey, two pieces of a sword fish's sword, one piece, the end, about 4½ inches long, which went through the copper, wood, sheathing and oak plank into the oak timber, and there was broken. About 4 inches from the first piece was found another which appeared to be the piece of the sword next toward the end from the first piece, which went through the copper, board sheathing, plank and an 8½ inch white oak timber, that was perfectly sound. On taking out this piece it was found mostly broke off at the edge outward of the timber, leaving in the timber about 8½ inches of the sword. The whole of the pieces connected, as the last went in slantingly, would be about 22 inches long. The most extraordinary circumstance is that the fish should be able to force the sword through such a solid mass of copper, sheathing, plank and timber, after 4½ inches had been broken off the end of it.

Utica, September 28.

On Sunday, the 19th inst. the Rt. Rev. Bishop Hobart performed divine service in this town, and administered confirmation to 22 persons.—On the day following, St. Paul's church at Paris was consecrated, and 69 persons received confirmation. On Tuesday last, the chapel erected for the Oneida Indians at Oneida Castle, was consecrated by the bishop, by the name of St. Peter's church, and 56 Indians, who had been previously prepared for that purpose by their instructor, Mr. Eleazor Williams, received confirmation. At the visit of the bishop the last year, 94 Indians were confirmed. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the exertions and pious zeal of Mr. Williams, in his successful efforts to bring into the christian church his infidel brethren. When he arrived among them two or three years ago, more than half of the Oneidas were of that character.

From the Norfolk Herald.

We have been favored with the perusal of several letters from officers on board the U. States frigate Congress, written on her arrival at Rio Janeiro; they communicate nothing remarkable. The Congress had an agreeable passage of 45 days, and her behaviour is spoken of as being uniformly good. One of the letters we have seen communicates the following incident in relation to a servile rule of etiquette at Rio Janeiro, which has so often and so justly been the cause of indignant resistance when the observance of it has been exacted of American and British officers:—

"Commodore BOWLES, of the English frigate Creole, got a sound drubbing by the king's guard for not dismounting and pulling off his hat when he met the king. The commodore was not in his uniform at the time, which is a great protection on such occasions. They attempted to make Mr. SUMPTER, our former minister, dismount whenever he met his majesty, but he expostulated against it several times without effect, until being one day called upon to perform this slavish obeisance, he drew his pistols and challenged the whole guard; after which he refused to attend court, and they were compelled to compromise with him."

ATROCIOUS OUTRAGE.

Last Friday night, about 10 o'clock, as Mr. Martin Mimms, a most respectable man, who superintends the toll house at Trent's Bridge, was retiring to rest, two men, apparently well dressed called at the toll house, with the professed intention of paying the toll. Mr. M. was in the act of carrying the dollar they tendered to the light for examination, when one of the men entered the door to ask for a little water. Mr. M. showed him the jug; and proceeded to inspect the dollar, which proved to be a counterfeit. In this situation, the stranger, who stood at the door, fired a pistol at Mr. M. a slug from which entered his arm without breaking the bone. His companion in the house then wounded Mr. M. in the back with a dirk, which on examination proves to be an old saw ground down to a sharp point. Notwithing his wounds and weakness, Mr. M. made a bold resistance, seized a pole, and compelled his atrocious assailants to take to their heels, across the bridge in the direction of this city. The cries of Mr. M. soon brought some servants to his assistance, who discovered the dirk still sticking in his back! It is supposed that the object of this ferocious assault was a robbery of all the toll money which was in the house; but this guilty purpose was completely defeated by the resolution of their intended victim. Mr. M. still lies very ill; but it is hoped by his physician that he will survive. It is reported that a man has been arested by the police, under strong suspicion of his being a party concerned. [Richm'd. Enq.

Foreign items—from the Boston Gazette.

Lady Byron is now at the Grove House, at Tunbridge Wells, living in entire seclusion with her mother and child.

The Isle of Wight is in a complete bustle at the present moment, by the presence of his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, whose rendezvous is appointed in that channel.—The inhabitants are elated with joy at the event, no monarch ever having been upon the Island since the imprisonment of the unfortunate Charles at Carisbrooke Castle.

Another celebrated exile, the Duke of Bassano, (Marat,) is said to have obtained permission to return to France.

It has been recently rumored in the political circles, that the British government has entered into a very close alliance with the court of Persia, and has not only engaged to supply the munitions of war, but to permit many British officers, peculiarly selected for abilities, knowledge, and experience, to engage in the Persian service.—The chief object of the reported treaty is said to be, to form a check upon the ambition of Russia, and to interpose Persia as a barrier against any designs which Russia may hereafter meditate upon India.

The accounts from the continent are very ominous. The government of Prussia seems to be agitated in no common degree. A letter from Wishaden states, that arrests, domiciliary visits and sequestrations of papers continue there, and excite general surprise. These appear to be carried on at the instance of the Berlin police. Several clergymen have been taken up. They are accused of entertaining republican principles, and of mingling with their religious instructions.

On the 15th of June there was a fire at St. Petersburg which threatened at one time to destroy the whole of the tallow warehouses: but it was got out with the loss of three barks, six lighters, and about 1000 casks tallow.

WONDERFUL EGGS.

Extract of a letter from River Ouelle, September 18.

"In the afternoon of the 12th August last, a young girl eleven years old, named Marie Danjou, being employed in feeding the poultry belonging to Henry Boucher, of the parish of River Ouelle, with whom she lives, noticed the cock ill treating one of the hens, and gave him a kick, having at the time in her hand a small stick to keep him off. At this moment, another of the hens (which she calls Huppe, for each of them has a name) seeming to take part with the cock, flew furiously on the back of the young girl. She mentioned the circumstances to the people of the house a few minutes after. It must be observed that she wore that day, a comb in her hair, and had on a blue and white calicoe gown with rather a yellow tinge and torn at the skirt."

"The next day about three o'clock in the afternoon, the brother of the young girl Martial Danjou, aged 10 years, having gone to examine the hen's nest and bring in the eggs, found the hen called Huppe on the nest. As soon as she had left it, he took the egg which she had laid, on which he observed, with much surprise, a figure of his Sister and the Cock. She is drawn in the attitude and dress of the moment; her comb in her hair, her yellowish blue gown torn in the skirt, the stick in her hand, her foot raised under the tail of the cock and her head turned towards the hen, who had flown at her from behind."

"This day the 18th Sept. about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the young girl found in the same nest, another egg, on which there are figured two small animals, I take the smallest to be a mouse or a rat, and the other a cat. Henry Boucher takes the smallest to be a figure of his small dog, the other the cock.

"The proprietor of these extraordinary Eggs is going to Quebec, where he intends shewing them to the curious. [Quebec pap.

From a London Paper.

THE PLAGUE.

Sir J. Jackson, in representing the report of the committee appointed to consider whether the plague was an infectious disorder, was understood to state that he differed from the opinion of the committee, which was expressed in the affirmative; he quoted the opinions of Dr. M'Cleod and Dr. Mitchell, in support of his own. Dr. M'Cleod considered that even if a large premium were offered, the plague could not be imported into England—(a laugh.) It would expire a natural death. It has been proved in evidence that the Turks constantly bought the clothes of persons dying of the plague, and wore them immediately, without being in the least affected. He wished also to impress upon the house the fact, that for upwards of 100 years no lazaretto had been seized with the plague, notwithstanding the number of ships which performed quarantine with disorder on board. The regulations of these places were very inconvenient; for, when a ship had been kept several days, if another arrived from the Levant, the former lost the advantage of its priority and was obliged to remain out the quarantine of the latter had been accomplished. He hoped some alteration might be adopted, to remove that inconvenience.

SICKNESS AND DROUGHT IN SALEM, N. J.

It is our melancholy task to state, that the mortality of this place by the Dysentery, is unusually alarming; the deaths being one, two, and three, daily; whereas, for years past, we understand, they have not been more frequent than two or three a month.—We do not know any local cause to attribute the ravages of this disease to other than the very warm weather and uncommon drought, which have been more severe in this place than for many years past; having nearly deprived us of garden vegetables. The common kind of potatoes are so small and scarce as often not to make their appearance at the dinner tables. Indian corn is very much dried up; and the apple tree orchards appear destitute of fruit. Although the drought has been so severe in this place; we are pleased to know that the latter harvests, like the former, and the garden vegetables, generally, through the country, promise abundantly. [Philad. Gaz.

The Gazette of Spires says, that public opinion expresses itself at present in Germany in many curious modes. Upon a late occasion at Worms, an old ballad singer went through the streets, crying out, Who will buy the tragical story of Kotzebue?—Who will buy the terrible Kotzebue? But he cried in vain, nobody would buy. Soon after a wheelbarrow of sand (SAND, the name of Kotzebue's assassin) was brought to the market-place, and a man standing near the barrow cried out in a loud voice, Who will buy sand (SAND) pure and very fine sand? and immediately he was surrounded with crowds of customers. [London paper.

UNION-HALL.

Mr. Richards of the Borough, charged his wife with robbing him, and eloping with another man. The complainant stated, that he was but lately married, but had found that his wife could drink more gin in one day than he could earn money in a week. He had frequently remonstrated with her, but without effect; and about a fortnight ago she abandoned him with an Irishman, taking away every portable article. He met her on Blackfriars-bridge, walking arm-in-arm with her paramour, who knocked the complainant down, whilst his wife aided in the assault, and threatened his life. The wife, in her defence, said she was justified in her conduct, on the principle of retaliation, for her husband had left her, and run away with another woman: and the magistrate observing there were faults on both sides, dismissed the complaint, and advised them to live peaceably for the future. [Ibid.

J. Fitzgerald, a stout bodied man, about 30 years of age, who travels on a sledge, has been comitted to the house of correction, at Kendal, for vagrancy. During his examination, he acknowledged that he had been a member of the "Beggars' Opera," in St. Giles'—that he had frequently got from five to ten guineas a week in London by begging—and at Lord Nelson's funeral he got twenty five guineas! He has travelled frequently through every part of the kingdom, and has been committed for vagrancy upwards of eighty times. He complained grievously of the trade being so bad—that somebody had spoiled it, both there and elsewhere—and that begging was above a hundred a year worse than it used to be. [Ibid.

PARTY SPIRIT.

The following from the Spectator very prettily illustrates the difficulties which, in times when party spirit runs high, beset a man who wishes to avoid giving offence to the conflicting partisans.

My worthy friend, Sir Roger, when we are talking of the malice of parties, very frequently tells us an accident that happened to him when he was a school boy, which was at the time when the feuds ran high between the Roundheads and Cavaliers. This knight being then but a stripling, had occasion to enquire which was the way to St. Anne's Lane; upon which the person whom he spoke to, instead of answering his question, called him a young popish cur, and asked him who made Anne a saint? The boy being in some confusion, inquired of the next the way to Anne's Lane? but was called a prick eared cur for his pains, and instead of being shown the way, was told that she had been a saint before he was born, and would be one after he was hanged.

Upon this, says Sir Roger, I did not think fit to repeat the former question, but going into every lane in the neighborhood, asked what they called the name of that lane, by which ingenious artifice he found out the place he inquired for, without giving offence to any party.

EXTRACTS,

Not unworthy the consideration of Americans.

"The history of Rome furnishes a striking instance of the deplorable effects of an influx of strangers into a country. After the Romans had conquered Carthage, Greece, Asia, and Gaul, Italy presently filled with enterprising emigrants from all quarters.—Though they came, as it were, singularly, and as humble suppliants, yet they, in effect, conquered their conquerors; they inundated all Italy; the majesty of the ancient Romans was obscured, overwhelmed, and utterly lost in an innumerable swarm of foreigners; the evil came on by slow and imperceptible degrees, but was at last irresistible and fatal. These were the persons generally employed in the civil wars. A multitude made up of such people is always fickle, inflammatory, outrageous, vindictive, and burning with ambition to level all distinctions."

"The republic of Athens, guarded the avenues to citizenship with great strictness. With them foreigners could only become citizens in their great grand children. Their policy, in this respect, seemed not only safe but necessary: their State was so small, that could foreigners have gained admittance, they would have outnumbered them. It is as dangerous to be outwitted as outnumbered, and it would be the true policy of the United States to admit no foreigner ever to the right of suffrage No person should hereafter become a citizen but by being born within the United States."

Antwerp, July 17.

From this place 32 pigeons were lately taken to London, after being marked with the word Antwerp. On the 11th inst. at 7 o'clock in the morning they were let loose at London, after being marked with the word London. One of them arrived at Antwerp towards noon, (in five hours:) in 4 hours after, the second arrived, and on the following day 12 more.

The widow of Kotzebue receives an annuity from the Emperor of Russia, amounting to 1875 silver rubles. A ruble is equal to the American dollar.

On the evening before St. Peter's day His Holiness protested in due form against the failure of the Duchy of Parma in delivering the usual tribute!—The same process has taken place against Naples. On this occasion the Neapolitan ambassador took a little journey: Probably he thought that his presence at Rome would not bring a single cent into the complaining coffers of the Holy Mother. From various other accounts it appears that some of her children are becoming very disobedient and obstreperous. The late visit of their Austrian Majesties to Rome cost the hospitable Pope 500, 60 piastres, which sum, it is said, he borrowed of Lucien Bonaparte.

The celebrated Madame CATALANI lately gave two oratorios in Hamburg. Her voice sounded to great advantage in the large and splendid St. Michael's church. She said: "I delight to sing in churches; here I feel the presence of the Deity." She is now travelling through the principal cities of Germany enrapturing the Germans wherever she sings. Her voice is said to be seraphic.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been recommended to the Mayor and Common Council of Alexandria, by the Clergy of the town, that a day be set apart as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, for the various blessings we enjoy; and the Common Council concurring in this recommendation, have, by an order passed on the 30th day of September, 1819, appointed Thursday, the 7th day of October, to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer: I do, therefore, recommend to the citizens of this town, that the said 7th day of October, be religiously observed as a day of THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER, to Almighty God, for the blessings we enjoy, and that those blessings may be continued to us.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 1st day of October, 1819.

(L. s.) JACOB HOFFMAN, Mayor.

☞ The thanksgiving recommended by the mayor and council, for Thursday next, (7th inst.) will be celebrated in the following manner, agreeably to a mutual arrangement among the ministers of the Presbyterian, Episcopalian, Methodist, and Baptist congregations:—

Divine Service will be performed in the First Presbyterian Church, in the morning, at 11 o'clock, and a sermon delivered by the the Rev. Mr. Harrison.—At Christ Church, in the afternoon, the sermon by the Rev. Dr. Wilmer.—At the Methodist Meeting-House, at candle light, the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Wells.

☞ Divine service will be performed in the Catholic Church, on Thursday, 7th inst. at 11 o'clock, when a discourse will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Baxter.

☞ The young Gentleman, a non-resident, who yesterday, in a jest, took from the desk of a store on King street, several Bank and Corporation notes, is advised to return the amount, either by person or through the post-office, or publicity will be given to his name. As what he has done may be considered by him as a joke, he is now apprised that no familiarity can justify him in retaining the money.

Caution to Dealers in Gunpowder.

HAVING found that inferior gunpowder of other manufactories is offered for sale as ours, even sometimes in kegs branded "DU PONT," whereby attempts are made to injure the well established character of our gunpowder, and imposed on the public, we think it necessary to caution the dealers against purchasing gunpowder, as ours, except from our agents, or from those who are known to purchase from us or our agents.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on Tuesday morning, the 14th inst. a dark mulatto man, named BILL JOHNSON; about 24 years old; five feet nine or ten inches high; well made. He had on when he went away a linen shirt and pantaloons, and yellow vest, which clothes he has probably changed, as he took others with him. He is very smart and communicative—reads and writes tolerably well. The above reward will be given if returned to me in Alexandria, or lodged in any jail where I may get him again.

Correct Information.

THE stock advertised for sale by the Mechanics' Bank as standing in our name, is not our property. Our stock note thereon has been continued, under heavy and disproportioned curtailments, ever since March 1818, for the use of the real owner, a respectable mechanic of this place, because he could not obtain leave, upon a transfer, to substitute his stock note for our's. We have no interest in said stock beyond the sum that will retire the said stock note, and we do not think it proper to advance more money than we have done for curtailments.

Public Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of trust from John M'Pherson, to secure the payment of a debt to the late William Hepburn, his heirs and executors, the subscriber (one of the trustees named in the said deed) will offer at public sale, on the premises, on THURSDAY the fourth day of November next, a TRACT of LAND, in Fairfax county, Virginia, about five or six miles from the town of Alexandria, known by the name of "Mount-Hebron," or so much thereof as may at that time be thought advisable to make sale of.

The improvements on the premises are—two dwelling houses, one of them of brick; a small country mill, with one pair of stones; a saw mill; and a building lately occupied as a cotton factory, with an extensive orchard of various kinds of fruit.

The terms of sale and any other necessary information will be given on the day of sale.

Valuable Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Superior court of chancery for the district of Fredericksburg in Virginia, the undersigned commissioners will proceed to sell at public auction, upon a credit of one, two, and three years, at Middleburg, in the county of Loudon, on Thursday the 18th day of November next,

4000 Acres of Land,

lying in the neighborhood of Middleburg.—The whole land is of that quality termed plaister land, and susceptible of high improvement by the use of it. The whole will be laid out into small tracts, of from two to three hundred acres each, and sold in separate tracts to suit purchasers. The whole is well watered, and no country is more healthy. Captain Pickett, who lives near the land, and who is employed to make a survey of it; and Mr. Sommers, who is the agent for the collection of the rents, will shew the land to those who may be inclined to purchase. Bond and security, and a deed of trust upon each tract, will be required of the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stocks, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

Was Committed,

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria on the 3d inst. as a runaway, a negro man called BEN HENDERSON, supposed to be the property of George Thornton, of King George county. 100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly; had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. 100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington, Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria, Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria, Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publication will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
